

MEMBERSHIP

Association Members are the tenants of St. Thomas allotment sites rented from Exeter City Council<sup>1</sup> and/or the Association<sup>2</sup>.

Allotment holders are automatically members of the Association as soon as the Exeter City Council application has been completed, received, and registered.

Membership will be for the duration of a plot-holder's tenancy, based on the tenancy lists current at any given time.

Membership of the Association includes any group insurances arranged by the Association and public liability insurance associated with operating an allotment garden.

Allotment holders may choose to opt out from STAA membership at any time. If you wish to opt out, please complete the form below* and return to your site representative.

Key documents

STAA Constitution, which is available on the STAA website and downloadable at:
https:// www.stthomasallotmentsassn.org.uk/constitution

*Opting out of STAA membership

I wish to opt out of STAA membership.

Signature: ..... STAA site: .....

Plot number: ..... date:.....

---

<sup>1</sup>Exeter City Council, as Landlord, has responsibility for setting and collecting rents, making & enforcing the rules, maintaining the site, maintaining and repairing any site infrastructure such as boundaries, tracks, ECC buildings as well as settling disputes between their tenants.

<sup>2</sup> Including polytunnel users and honorary members